Cheng (“TSWC” or “Purchaser”) had issued a letter informing ACB that the offer made by him for the Proposed Acquisition of LCB Bonds/Debt/RCSLS was withdrawn and he will be reviewing the terms for the renewed offer for the Proposed Acquisition of LCB Bonds/Debt/RCSLS.

The Board wishes to announce that TSWC had vide its letter dated 26 June 2014 made a revised offer to acquire from ACB the entire LCB Bonds and LCB RCSLS (excluding the TSWC RCSLS) held by ACB for the ACB Consideration of RM125.88 million and ACB Additional Final Payment of RM4.23 million (“Proposed Disposal of LCB Bonds/RCSLS”).

TSWC’s offer to acquire the entire LCB Bonds/RCSLS held by ACB is part of TSWC’s revised offer to acquire from the LCB Lenders (including ACB) the entire LCB Bonds/Debt/RCSLS including TSWC RCSLS for an aggregate cash consideration of RM246 million (comprising the Purchase Consideration and Additional Final Payment) (“Proposed Acquisition of LCB Bonds/Debt/RCSLS”).

(c) Deferred interest of 6% shall accrue on the Deferred Cash Payments

2.2 Deferred Cash Payments, ACB Additional Final Payment and Security

Notwithstanding the Deferred Cash Payments and the ACB Additional Final Payment referred to above, the Proposed Disposal of LCB Bonds/RCSLS shall be deemed to be completed on the Completion Date as stipulated in the ACB SPA.

The Purchaser acknowledges that such part of the Deferred Cash Payments and the ACB Additional Final Payment as remaining unpaid from time to time by the Purchaser to ACB shall constitute a valid debt payable by the Purchaser to ACB in accordance with the provisions set out in the ACB SPA.

The Purchaser shall pay to ACB, interest on the Deferred Cash Payments at six per cent (6%) per annum. The interest is to be calculated from and including the day following the Completion Date to the date of actual payment and such interest shall be paid together with the respective Deferred Cash Payments. No interest shall accrue on the ACB Additional Final Payment.

Any payment made by the Purchaser shall firstly be applied towards settlement of the interest charged and thereafter the Deferred Cash Payments and thereafter, the ACB Additional Final Payment.

Until the full payment of the Deferred Cash Payments together with the interest payable thereon and the ACB Additional Final Payment to ACB, the Purchaser shall create in favour of and shall grant to ACB effective from the Completion Date, a first legal charge by way of a memorandum of deposit ("MOD") over the ACB Sale Securities together with the voting rights (subject to the exercise of the voting rights by the Purchaser prior to the default of the ACB SPA and/or the MOD in respect of the matters set out in the MOD), all accretions, benefits, advantages (all payments received/accrued from the ACB Sale Securities shall be utilised for the repayment/prepayment of the Deferred Cash Payments and the ACB Additional Final Payment) and liens whatsoever accruing in respect of the ACB Sale Securities ("Charged Securities") to secure the repayment of the respective Deferred Cash Payments and the ACB Additional Final Payment and all interest, costs and expenses and other liabilities payable or agreed to be paid by the Purchaser under the ACB SPA and the MOD. The Purchaser shall execute and perfect such security documentation in escrow (including the MOD) on such terms and conditions acceptable to ACB.

In addition, ACB agrees to assign by way of sale, all rights of ACB under the ACB SPA and under the security described above, to the Security Trustee, as agent for the ACB Lenders receiving the total consideration, including the entitlement to the Deferred Cash Payments and ACB Additional Final Payment in accordance with the ACB PSSA.

The Charged Securities shall be released or discharged in its entirety within ten (10) Business Days from the date of and only upon full settlement of the ACB Consideration and ACB Additional Final Payment by the Purchaser and all interest, costs and expenses and other liabilities payable or agreed to be paid by the Purchaser under the ACB SPA and the MOD.

Prior to the occurrence of any default under the terms of the ACB SPA and/or MOD, the Purchaser will retain the following voting rights to the Charged Securities with respect to these matters only:-

- (i) any proposal for the deferment of the LCB Bonds, LCB Debts and/or LCB RCSLS;
- (ii) waiver and/or indulgence of the defaults and/or declaration of events of defaults in relation to Megasteel Sdn Bhd, a subsidiary of LCB, the listing of LCB under Practice Note 17 of the MMLR and the de-listing of LCB from the Main Market of Bursa Securities, if any; and
- (iii) sale of any assets by LCB or its subsidiaries and any proceeds received by the Purchaser (arising from his holdings in the LCB Bonds, LCB Debts and/or LCB RCSLS) which will be used to prepay/repay, in chronological order, the Deferred Cash Payments and the ACB Additional Final Payment due under the ACB SPA, sub-paragraphs (a),(b) and (c) above shall collectively be referred to as “Reserved Voting Rights”.

For the avoidance of doubt:-

- (aa) upon the occurrence of any default under the terms of the ACB SPA and/or MOD, the Reserved Voting Rights shall immediately revert to ACB and the Purchaser shall no longer be allowed to exercise the Reserved Voting Rights; and
- (bb) prior to the occurrence of any default under the terms of the ACB SPA and/or MOD, ACB will retain the voting rights to the Charged Securities with respect of all other matters in relation to the LCB Bonds, LCB Debts and/or LCB RCSLS and such voting rights are exercisable at all times by ACB at its discretion.

Default in the payment by the Purchaser of the First Deferred Cash Payment shall not accelerate the payment of the Second Deferred Cash Payment, Final Deferred Cash Payment and the ACB Additional Final Payment which shall remain due and payable on the stipulated payment date.

In the event of default of payment of the First Deferred Cash Payment by the Purchaser, ACB shall be entitled to enforce its rights under the MOD in respect of the Charged Securities to repay the outstanding amount due and owing on the First Deferred Cash Payment.

The aforesaid principle in the two (2) paragraphs above, shall apply mutatis mutandis for the Second Deferred Cash Payment, Final Deferred Cash Payment and the ACB Additional Final Payment.
